

THE CHAPLAINCY SERVICE FOR DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING PEOPLE

Q: How does the Chaplaincy Service for Deaf & Hard of Hearing People help?

It is a ministry being available for all people with various levels of hearing loss ranged from profound deaf with BSL to mild hearing loss, including people who are deafblind. Various services can be offered in British Sign Language (BSL) or other methods of communication to meet everyone's needs as following:

- Confirmation
- Funeral
- Wedding
- Infant/Adult Baptism
- Bible Study in BSL
- Pastoral Care – HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
- Bridge of Hope church service every 3rd Sunday EACH month

About Reverend Neil Robinson

Rev. Neil is himself a profoundly deaf BSL user and is happily married to Helen, who is also deaf. Both Neil & Helen are Cochlear Implant users.

He was ordained on 24th June 2016. He has two roles – Assistant Curate for the Benefice of Bemerton Heath and Chaplain with Deaf & HoH People for the diocese of Salisbury.

He would love to meet you at any time. To contact him directly, please text Rev. Neil (07717 055219) or email him on deafpriest.salisbury@gmail.com.
