The bishops and their wives, along with the Provincial Secretary, held their Annual Retreat meeting from 30 November to 5 December 2020 at the Regency Hotel in Khartoum. The meeting discussed many important issues related to the growth and development of spiritual and administrative work in the Province and the Dioceses.

Archbishop Ezekiel Kondo led the Retreat and began with a question:

- * Who are we?
- * Where do we come from?
- * Where are we going?

The main verse on this subject was from Acts 8:27, which is the story of the Ethiopian eunuch minister, and after a discussion we arrived at the following: - The Ethiopian eunuch is a Sudanese from the Meroe region in the of North Sudan.

The message of the Gospel arrived with the eunuch minister, and the evidence for that is the Christian kingdoms in the land of Nubia in northern Sudan, whose traces still remain, with the presence of some customs in the current region that trace their origins back to Christianity in the region. Anglican Tradition and system of worship were emphasized.

A workshop for priests on the system and rituals of worship.

It was decided to suspend ordinations of priests at the moment, except when it is absolutely necessary, while working on the academic and theological training of the current pastors.

Provincial Standing Committee Meeting

The Standing Committee held its first meeting since the inauguration of the Province in the period from 30 - 31 October 2020 at the Cathedral, with 29 members in attendance. The meeting discussed the detailed canons of the church in the constitution of the Episcopal Church of Sudan for the year 2019, and after discussion the meeting came out with the following decisions:

- Approval of the detailed canons of the constitution of the Province of the Episcopal Church of Sudan for the year 2019 with amendments and additions

- Approval of the establishment of a new Diocese in the state of South Kordofan (part of Kadugli Diocese)
- Approval of the position of Assistant Bishop for the Dio-

Seminar for priests and laity

The Province held a two day seminar 29- 30 Jan 2021 for priests and laity on the use of the Book of Common Prayer and the Anglican Episcopal liturgical forms of worship, in implementation of the decisions of the meeting of Bishops and their wives. All Pastors in the Diocese of Khartoum participated in the seminar and discussed many topics, especially worship, Sunday prayers, the lectionary and the church dress during worship.
