Comment: Reconnecting with Confirmation:

As it is now 10 years since the Church of England began an experiment in letting children come to communion at a young age, it is now time for a standard work on the subject. This title draws together all the background, experience, theology and resources in order to lead the church to full participation. It includes interviews with David Stancliffe (Bishop of Salisbury), Diana Murrie (National Children's Officer), Mark Russell (Archbishop's Council), Andy Perry (Vicar of Longfleet St Mary, Poole), Stephen Venner (Bishop of Dover) and others. Including biblical and historical overviews, children's perspectives, a review of current resources, the national picture, and a reflection on the Guidelines of the House of Bishops, "Let the Children Come to Communion" is set to become the standard text on this very topical subject.

Comment: Are you Ready?:

A resource to help leaders prepare young people for confirmation. This 'prequel' to the confirmation gift book Living your Confirmation (SPCK, 2012) contains 19 ready-to-use, interactive sessions to use with young people who are preparing for confirmation. The first part of the book focuses on the promises made in the confirmation service and relates to the topics covered in Living your Confirmation, including prayer, Holy Communion, going to church and social action. The second part includes sessions on sex, alcohol, image, exams, science, pornography and suffering. An introduction considers the point of confirmation and its role in a young person's faith journey. The book also includes a full programme for a pre-confirmation retreat and a liturgy for the enrolment of confirmands.

Comment: Living your Confirmation:

A funkily designed confirmation gift book for the teenage market (11-16). Using the promises made in the confirmation service as a structure, this book focuses on keeping going as a Christian beyond the day itself.

Comment: Faith Confirmed:

A very popular book with over 50,000 copies sold. Quite comprehensive and in-depth regarding topics covered. Effectively, 19 chapters to cover, so very long - maybe some of the weeks could be combined so the course is shorter, or candidates could read the text and come prepared to cover two Chapters in one session?

How do we know God?

Why is Jesus' death important?

How do I pray?

Do I have to go to church to be a Christian?

In our journey through life we are often confronted with big questions. What is the purpose of life? Why do people have to die? What happens after death? Where do we look to find answers to these questions? Christians through the years have turned towards the Bible and the Church for answers.

Faith Confirmed is an introduction to what Anglican Christians believe. It is written for those preparing for confirmation in the Anglican Church and for all those who want to know more about the essentials of the Christian faith. This revised edition has been completely updated for the twenty-first century.

Comment: Moving Images, Changing Lives:

Very good resource and quite comprehensive. Fantastic to explore themes from the movies the youngsters will have probably already seen but even if they haven't, the movie clips will be extremely engaging and current. 11 sessions (the 11th being post-Confirmation). Advice given about using the resource over less weeks whilst still including the 11th session. DVD is not provided so you will have to source the film clips yourself.

Ideal for those exploring faith for the first time and as a confirmation course, its eleven sessions focus on:

God

Jesus

the Holy Spirit

the Bible

Prayer

the Church

Communion

Living the life of faith - and more.

Everything is provided for the busy youth leader: equipment lists, ice-breaking activities, questions for reflection, prayers, and links to online film clips.

Comment: The Confirmation Experience:

The Confirmation Experience aims to celebrate Confirmation in a way that grows a healthy community of Christians. Using the image of a journey, there are twelve very varied events rather than a course of study, in which all candidates take part together, along with other members of the church community.

Comment: Youth Emmaus 2:

Youth Emmaus 2 is a fourteen-session interactive discipleship course for young people, designed to help 11- to 16-year-olds integrate their faith into life and to equip them as worshippers and disciples. It breaks down into two sections - Big Issues and Holy Spaces.

Big Issues (Sessions 1-7) tackles Jesus' sermon on the mount, engaging with issues like poverty and injustice, forgiveness and reconciliation, dreams and passions.

Holy Spaces (Sessions 8-14) explores creative ways of worshipping together - from protest to praise.

Each session includes detailed leaders' notes, ice-breakers, theme-focused activities, ideas for worship and multimedia suggestions. It's suitable as a discipleship course, a post-confirmation resource, or a framework for a series of one-off events or a youth residential.

It's ideal as a follow-on from Youth Emmaus or as stand-alone material to help young people grow in discipleship. The free CD-ROM includes handouts, resource sheets, PowerPoint presentations, cartoons and graphics, a youth Emmaus poster and a bookmark.

Comment: Get a Life:

This follow-on from the popular Youth Emmaus books is an exciting new course for young people. Get a Life! approaches some of the big questions that 13-18 year-olds face in their secondary school years, including issues of vocation, calling, gifts, passions and the big question that many young people dread being asked: 'What do you want to do with your life?'

Written in an accessible manner, the five sessions draw on contemporary culture and include interactive material to explore the issues and themes of calling, gifts and service.

Ideal for 13-18 year olds who are making big decisions about the future, as a pre- or post-confirmation course, as a Lent course, or as an after school series.

Comment: Walk in this light:

Every year, some 175,000 children and adults are baptised or confirmed in the Church of England. Jesus himself was baptised and from its very beginning, the sacrament of baptism was the point of entry into the Church. It is the starting point of an adventurous journey through life with God, living as God's person in the world. Here, the bestselling author Richard Giles reflects with wisdom and humour on what that sort of life will look like. Written with characteristic simplicity and directness, he spells out what it will mean to live out the vows we make at baptism. It is not for the faint-hearted or the half-hearted and if we mean business, the journey will almost certainly take us where we never imagined we might go. Drawing on the shape, the words and the dramatic imagery of the service - washing, clothing, being signed with the cross, anointing, being sent out to be lights in the world - Richard paints an invigorating, compelling picture of the dedicated Christian life.

Comment: Confirmation Notebook:

The author is very well-known; The book is already well-established, having sold over 37,000 copies; Fills a gap in confirmation preparation; Includes new chapters on Common Worship, Christian behaviour, sex, and the Church's Year; This is a classic in confirmation preparation. It is a very simple statement and summary of faith, rather like a Catechism. It is not intended as a textbook, but as a resource for the student to keep. This new edition is user-friendly and attractive.

Comment: Kleer Series:

Start spiritual conversations with young people in any school, church or youth context. Each short Kleer Series video is a blend of presentation, visual storytelling and spoken word poetry followed by thought provoking questions to facilitate learning in any group setting. Kleer Series enables young people to explore the idea that they are spiritual and discuss why discovering the human spirit might transform their perspectives on identity, purpose and faith.

Comment: Ethos:

Ethos is a series of ground-breaking short films, available to watch free on this site and YouTube, that speak creatively and authentically into the issues. Ethos exists to help address the needs specific to this generation of young adults; to help inspire, stir, challenge and ignite discussion amongst so called generation Y. Why not take a look, get involved, and share in our passion and heart to see real change amongst Britain's young adults? Tell us what you think, join in and help us see a 'missing generation' become a found generation.

Comment: Soul [food]:

Over the course of a year, a typical parish church has contact with hundreds and possibly thousands of people. We often meet new people through key moments like Christmas, Easter, or Mothering Sunday; or through Baptisms, Funerals, Weddings and simply times when people come into church to be quiet and pray. The question is:

How do we help people to take steps in their journey of faith?

soul[food] seeks to help churches to make the most of occasional contacts. It's very simple. Hand out a small card to people who come to join you for Christmas or attend a Baptism (for example). Or put the card in the pew/seat to be picked up.

The card invites people to find out more by signing up to receive mini bite-sized messages which make connections with some of the themes of the service they have just attended. The initial sign up is for seven days; a week's worth of short pithy thoughts sent by email or text.

At the end of the week there is an invitation to sign up to receive a 21-day journey, called [lifesteps], making connections between faith and life.

Each email or text connects back to the soul[food] website where there will be links to websites exploring the Christian faith and ways to finding a church—opportunities to continue the journey.
