they create their own prophetic Rant for modern times ecting from the past to the present day - the rich discourse world views to my own world view

My Prophetic Rant

They who claim to want to ~~fix~~ ~~help~~ end racism and make it stop, but don't do anything to help and continue to live their lives and act like it doesn't exist.
Those who go out of their way to stop racism are the only people making a difference and yet not many people do. Hear this racism get normalised into society for example normalising mocking Indian and accents and many more things. You who don't normalise ~~this~~ standing up to it, are the problem.
