

Books at Press empowers educationalists with a specialist range of quality and well-informed curriculum resources, consultancy and bespoke training to inspire essential understanding of religion and worldviews for young learners.

Belonging and Believing:

A new series of books which will help enable young children to engage with the lives of a five/six year old child from eight different religions and worldviews.

With the author and photographer having worked directly with the families, the books focus on the 'lived experience' of the children, their families and communities, bringing real lives into the classroom.

The Belonging and Believing resources aim to inform, inspire, engage and excite children, teachers, and everyone interested in understanding and respecting diversity of religion and worldviews.
