

Leadership for Impact with Andy Buck

How leaders at all levels can create great schools

Friday 24th February 2017

An interactive one day conference that will consider:

- The elements that underpin schools which have attained outstanding judgements over a sustained period of time
- The leadership necessary to create the conditions for excellence to thrive

Andy will use a blend of high quality input, discussion & debate suitable for senior leads, heads and system leaders.

The conference will be based on Andy's learning from his work leading the London Challenge 'Good to Great' programme, his participation in Oxford University's 'High Performing Leadership' course and the meta-analysis by Dr Viviane Robinson from the University of Auckland on what leaders do to make the biggest difference to pupil outcomes.

Andy has worked as a teacher, senior leader, head teacher and NLE. He became Director of the NCSL in 2009 leading on the London Challenge Programme. He was subsequently responsible for setting up the government's TS programme, before being appointed as Managing Director of one of the country's largest academy groups. In 2014 Andy founded Leadership Matters, an organisation that aims to improve educational outcomes for pupils by working alongside educational leads at all levels.
