

Latest links from the Cathedral and Church Buildings Division of the Church of England

- Guidance on conducting public worship. This includes how to calculate capacity within social distancing measures and information on what the government guidance says about hygiene and issues such as music and singing.
- Guidance on legal questions on conducting public worship.
- Guidance on opening cathedral and church buildings. This is a significantly revised version of the previous 'general access' guidance and includes information on welcoming visitors and tourists, as well as on issues such as bell ringing, churchyards, bats and maintenance.
- An updated risk assessment template.
- Additionally there is now guidance on churchyards and outdoor worship
- Historic England's new guidance on managing environmental deterioration of stained glass has now been published.
- The new guidance and an explanation of the changes to Quinquennials can be found here on the ChurchCare section of the Church of England website.

Dated 3rd July 2020