

Complicated lives, negative self-image's. Do you wonder how you can know for sure if God really loves you? Have you wondered if you have really been forgiven?

As he explores the teachings of the New Testament these questions and more are addressed in Rev'd David Johns' new book 'My God, Your God, Who?' 'a reflection on why we believe what we believe.'

Having spent 30 years as a Police Officer in London and 20 years as an ordained minister within the Church of England, Rev'd John has been exposed to the breadth of human experience. During both careers, he has sought to contextualise and apply his faith and theology into the situations, lives, and experiences of those to whom he has ministered.

My God, Your God, Who? is the result of this process. As David explains, "It is offered with passion, and in response to those I love, whose pain I have seen and into whose lives I have tried, however failingly, to minister the almighty love and grace of God in Christ."

Rev'd David W John is 59 years old, married to his second wife, Iveta. He has three children, Daniel 30, Carla 6 and Casey 5. David has been an ordained Priest for twenty years and served as a police officer for thirty years, he is currently the Vicar of five Churches in North Dorset.
