Narrative Report of Covid-19 Relief Food Distribution with Funds from the Diocese of Salisbury

Introduction:

The amount of GBP44,300 was received from the Diocese of Salisbury's Special Appeal by the Bishop of Salisbury, The Rt. Revd. Nicholas Holtam which was a response to the request of the Archbishop of Sudan, The Most Revd. Ezekiel Kondo. The funds were received in two parts, GBP5, 000 was sent in advance to the Province of Sudan to meet the most pressing needs of those who much affected by the lockdown due to the Covid 19 pandemic and then the GBP39,300 did follow when the funds were raised. The same amount was also sent the sister Province of South Sudan for the same purpose. The GBP44,300 converted to USD52,680.57 and this money was then changed to SDG15,804,171 Sudanese Pounds.

The amount was then divided proportionally between the five Dioceses of Sudan: Khartoum, Kadugli, El Obeid, Port Sudan and Wad Medani, plus the Provincial Office.

The Distribution:

1. Diocese of Khartoum: Khartoum managed to distribute food items to 32 churches and centers with total number of 3,036 families. This includes 77 pastors and lay readers and Mothers' Union members.
2. Diocese of Kadugli: Kadugli managed to distribute food items mainly dura/sorghum in Kadugli town, Murtah, Delange/Dilling and the other side of the divide (SPLM/N area).
